Chris Feinle Twirls Steady Game for Blue and Gray Team.

DALY'S WORK FEATURES

Kelly, for Notre Dame, Fans Seven Hilltoppers—Victory Should Have Been Shut-out.

Georgetown added another victory to its long string yesterday when Notre Dame went down in defeat on the Hilltop, 4 to 1.

"Dutch" Feinle mounted the rubber and pitched a steady game throughout. Up to the seventh inning the Notre Dame crew were only able to get one hit off his delivery.

Kelly, of Notre Dame, deserved a better fate than that which came his way, as he had a puzzling assortment of shoots and managed to make seven of the Hilltop field on strikes. Toward the latter part of the contest, however, the Hilltoppers took his measure, and in the seventh and eighth innings shoved three runs over the plate, aided and abetted by the errors of omission and commission by Kelly's supporters.

Daly's work was one of the fea-though Connolly was thrown out at easy fashion.

In the seventh Newning singled and late second and went to third on an infifield out, scoring when Piiska's hit to Martin was being fielded to the plate.

In Georgetown's half of the seventh Daly singled, went to third on an error by Newning and scored on Feinle's sacrifice fly. In this imping the Hill-serious has pitched grand ball for the White Sox and during the first five innings the Nationals could do very little with his assortment of spitters and curves, but they got to him later. The game was played in less than two hours, and it is a pity Ban Johnson could not have been on hand.

The White Sox were first to score, white was the white Sox were first to score.

Daly singled, went to third on an er-ror by Newning and scored on Feinle's sacrifice fly. In this inning the Hill-toppers had the bases full, but only "One reason why I cannot see the Feereral League as a competitor with organized baseball," said Jimmy Callahan, manager of the Chicago White Sox, "is that they have on their various citube all the diagruntled players in both the American and National Leagues."

"From what I have learned." Callahan continued, "the Feds do not attempt to maintain dicipline in their ranks, the players are not required to train, and the brand of bail they have been foisting on the public is lower than Class A. "In Chicago last Sunday the American, National, and Federal Leagues all played games. We had on the South Side 2000 fans, the Cubs, on the west Side, had 2,000, and the Federals, in North Chicako, 20,000, with Joe Tinker and Mordecal Brown as the attraction. The Feds have not hurt us one bit in Chicago. "I talked to Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh club, in the Smoky City.
